Now that the season opening day in Borovets Mountain Bike Park is behind us, we can safely say that season 2014 is ON!

A big THANK YOU for all riders who braved the mud and the rain (the riding was quite awesome), it was good to see you in such large numbers! Your excitement made our season opening day pretty special... As expected, a handful of riders who decided to come early gathered most prizes in our little Bonus Hunters game, but there are still some leftovers - 2 two-day lift pass vouchers and 2 beer power-ups still remain hidden somewhere in the woods... Come and get them!

Here are some photos from the 1st day of the season
